

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

DAY ONE – Wednesday, 1st March 2017

- 8:00am Registration opens + Morning Tea & Networking
9:00am Welcome & Introduction - John Stulen, FIEA and Sheryl Dawson, CEO, McFall Fuel (Conference Chair)

SESSION 1: CEOs AND THE NEED TO LEAD SAFETY IMPLICITLY

Session Sponsor: WORKSAFE

- 9:15am KEYNOTE ADDRESS #1 -Ten Years on: British Columbia Forest Safety Council
Key changes in safety in a decade and the biggest training challenges and successes in safety.
Rob Moonen, CEO, BC Forest Safety Council, CANADA
- 10:00am What Difference can a Director Make Now?
The importance of governance to small business safety in primary industries
Mavis Mullins, Director, PM Shearing
- 10.30am Forestry's Journey to Taking Safety First Across our Industry
A WorkSafe perspective on safety leadership, assessment trends and worksite observations across our forest workplaces.
Jo-Ann Pugh, Deputy Assessments, WorkSafe New Zealand
- 11:00am Raising the bar together
What has been the forestry industry claim performance in recent years, and what business can you expect from ACC in the new health and safety legislative environment?
Diego Rodriguez, Senior Injury Prevention Specialist, ACC
- 11.30am Safety Tool Talks: New and emerging innovations - Part 1
- 12:00pm Lunch & Networking
- 1:00pm Practical and Legal Implications of the new Health & Safety at Work Act on Forest Companies and Contractors.
Aaron Lloyd, Partner, Minter Ellison Rudd Watts

SESSION 2: TECHNOLOGY TO SHIFT THE SAFETY RISK/PARADIGM

Session Sponsor: ACC

- 1:30pm The Future of Forest Machine Technologies
What can we expect to enhance operator safety, productivity and efficiency
Richard Lawler, Director of Engineering Forestry, John Deere, USA
- 2:00pm Increased safety through technology - learning from the mining industry.
What can the Forest Industry Learn/Adapt/Update from the Automated Experience of Large Australian Mining Companies for Safety Improvements?
Dr Richard Parker, Ergonomist, Scion
- 2:30pm Increased Safety through Technology - The New Normal? Universal GPS Tracking On Heavy Equipment.
Safety as a key driver - With recent strengthening of both New Zealand and Australian health and safety legislation
Jim French, GPS Specialist, Teletrac Navman
- 3:00pm Afternoon Tea & Networking
- 3:30pm CEOs and Leaders: Monitoring what matters
How to identify the critical health and safety indicators needed to understand performance in your business - A guide for CEOs
Francois Barton, Executive Director, Business Leaders' Health & Safety Forum
- 4:00pm Ensuring In-Forest Safety in Man-Machine Interactions
Testing and Technical Developments to reduce Risks associated with Harvester Head Chainshot
Paul Gamble, Program + PV&V Manager, Waratah NZ Limited and Charlie Thomson, TF Processors, Fraser Logging
- 4:40pm Safety Tool Talks: New and emerging innovations - Part 2
- 5:00pm Drinks, Nibbles & Networking
(courtesy of sponsors in the exhibition area)
- 7.00pm

DAY TWO – Thursday, 2nd March 2017

SESSION 3: PEOPLE, CULTURE AND IMPROVING SAFETY – FINDING OUR WAY TO CHANGE

Session Sponsor: RYCO 24-7

- 8:30am KEYNOTE ADDRESS #2
Ten Years on: Faller Certification in British Columbia
Creating a Certified Falling Supervisor Program and Falling Safety Advisor
Peter Sprout, Certified Falling Supervisor & QST, CANADA
- 9:00am Taking Faller Certification Nationwide
What are the challenges for a National System to Operate Successfully?
Les Bak, Health and Safety Manager, Nelson Forests Limited
- 9:30am Part 1 > Beyond Safety: Evolution & Adaptation in Unpredictable Environments
Part 2 > Learning Review: A 'Game-changer' for Accident Investigation
Brionny Hooper, Human Factors Scientist, Scion
- 10:00am Morning Tea & Networking
- 10:30am Start Small, Think Big: Learning teams - Understanding how, rather than why and who to blame.
Learning teams bring together a range of people including our contractors, and insights feed back into the system, leading to more effective solutions
Megan Curry, HSE Engagement Manager, Contact Energy
- 11:00am Leading by Example: Transitioning from Health and Safety Manager to Leader
Steve Carden, CEO, Landcorp Farming
- 11:30am The Safety Journey: Are We There Yet?
Challenges and Successes with Safety Improvement – What have we Achieved to Date and Where are We Going Next?
Fiona Ewing, CEO, Forest Industry Safety Council

12:00pm Lunch & Networking

FOREST INDUSTRY SAFETY COUNCIL (FISC) WORKSHOP SESSIONS

SESSION 4: DEVELOPMENTS IN SAFETY AND LEARNING SYSTEMS

Session Sponsor: FISC

- 1:00pm FISC WORKSHOP SESSION 1A
Gaining an In-depth Understanding of Learning Review Techniques
Brionny Hooper, Human Factors Scientist, Scion
- 1:00pm FISC WORKSHOP SESSION 1B
Industry Update on Individual & Company Certification System Project and Pilot Progress
- 2:30pm Afternoon Tea & Networking
- 3:00pm FISC WORKSHOP SESSION 2A
Growing our Safety Culture - Transferring the learning and implementing into our Workplaces
- 3:00pm FISC WORKSHOP SESSION 2B
Risk Management – Principles to Practice
- 4:20pm Conference concludes

